HENRIOT BRUT SOUVERAIN CHAMPAGNE – FRANCE (NV)

Henriot Brut Souverain offers a rich and diversified aromatic range that gives it a beautiful complexity. Each cru expresses itself in a unique and dynamic manner, not overshadowing the others in the expression. Therefore, it is a perfectly organized “ballet of aromas”: generous and salivating notes of cake with fresh citrus fruits, the exuberance of smoke evolving into pure chalk, not forgetting to mention the basket of stone fruits and red fruits. The aromatic notes of Henriot Brut Souverain have an infinite number of complexities due to its diverse crus. On the palate, it is ample, straightforward, round with a long, persistent freshness.”

Btl. - £65.00

HENRIOT BRUT ROSE CHAMPAGNE FRANCE – (NV)

This rosé Champagne allies elegance with intensity in the purest Henriot style. Crafted by adding Pinot Noir red wine to the blend, this Champagne expresses the very best of Montagne de Reims Pinot Noir (50%) & Meunier (10%), while preserving the fresh mineral character of Chardonnay (40%). Brut rosé also contains precious reserve wines which make up 35% of the blend. Every bottle is then left to rest in the cool cellars for 3 years (the minimum for all the houses wines). Pale pink in appearance with a fine & persistent bead in the glass. On the nose, this Champagne may surprise with its characteristic, complex intensity & appealing fruit-driven style. Well balanced palate of red & dark berry fruit with a little hint of spice & a finish culminating in a touch of sweetness.

Btl. - £75.00
